

AARCH MADRID WORKSHOP 3 March 17-21st 2005
Provisional Program

THURSDAY March 17th 2005

Check-in at the hotel

Information pack (with 10-trip metro ticket) provided on arrival at hotel.

There is NO arranged evening meal, but suggested locations will be in the information pack.

GENERAL

This Workshop is intended to primarily consider Analysis – but no aspect of archaeomagnetism is excluded.

We wish to avoid “conference-style” atmosphere and hope that all participants will assist in provoking discussions rather than making ‘simple’ presentations.

The Pre/Post Doc presentations within the Workshop (See also Business Meeting) should emphasise scientific problems. These will have to be short, <20 min each, because of the numbers involved. More specific time allocations will be sent before Christmas! Existing posters etc. are welcomed but NO posters should be prepared specifically for this meeting!

Suggestions for the Open Discussions are welcomed and will be incorporated in the penultimate program (before Christmas).

All lunches, coffee/tea etc., are included in the registration fee. Evening meals on arrival and on Sunday are NOT included, but dinner on Thursday, Friday and Monday are included in the AARCH registration fee.

FRIDAY March 18th 2005

Morning session: “The physical basis of archaeomagnetism”.

A platform on which to review what we know about the basic tenets of the archaeomagnetism of fired materials. It is hoped that there will be 2 specialist guest speakers and lots of provocative discussion.

9.00 am. ‘What do we know about TRM?’

9.45 am. ‘What is the origin of the NRM in fired archaeological materials?’

10.30 am. Coffee.

11.00 am. Open discussion (mainly, but not exclusively, on the talks)

1-2.30 pm. Lunch (cafeteria) included in registration

Afternoon session: Pre/Post presentations 1 and lab visit.

Pre/Post-docs to review their work, esp. practical aspects & scientific problems.

2.30 pm. Pre/Post presentations I First 7 of 13(or 14) reviews

5-6 pm. Coffee and lab visits.

6 pm. Return to hotel.

8 pm. Evening meal (all together in restaurant)

SATURDAY March 19th 2005

Morning session.

Pre/Post presentations II and open discussion.

The remaining pre/post-doc reviews, to be followed by an open session filled by non-AARCH presentations and AARCH-suggested topics.

Suggestions for topics to be discussed are strongly welcomed!

9am. Pre/Post-doc presentations cont'd

10.30am. Coffee.

11.00am. Open Session.

Any remaining Pre/Post-doc followed by Open discussion – suggested topics welcomed

1-2.30pm. Lunch (buffet)

2.30pm. Afternoon session. Data Analysis Workshop.

A comparison of software, results and analytical processes forms the basis of the data workshop. (Presenting results and software via projector and screen.)

Database requirements and development of website

5.30-6pm. Return to hotel.

8pm. Evening meal (all together in restaurant).

SUNDAY March 20th 2005

Excursion (including “site” visit) – to be back in Madrid for 7-8pm.

Details still being arranged

Free evening (i.e. No group meal planned.)

MONDAY March 21th 2005

THIS IS A BUSINESS MEETING FOR AARCH MEMBERS ONLY

(Non AARCH members, who have paid for the evening meal this evening, are very welcome to join us for this Dinner but you must let us know in advance)

MID-TERM REVIEW MEETING (see agenda below)

Workshop 3 Dinner is expected to be in Segovia (north of Madrid).